

Exhibit 1

John E. Bradley Jr.

c: [REDACTED]

EDUCATION

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY LAW CENTER
Juris Doctor, 1991

Washington DC

BOSTON COLLEGE
Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, 1988

Chestnut Hill, MA

WORK EXPERIENCE

PLYMOUTH COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE

Brockton, MA

Deputy First Assistant District Attorney (April 2003- September 2012)

- Screened all cases for indictment between 2003-2006
- Supervised entire staff of district court prosecutors, on average 25 attorneys
- Prosecuted approximately 30 homicide trials as the lead attorney
- Handled close to 100% of own cases on appeal, including brief writing and oral argument
- Developed a niche in investigating and prosecuting "cold" homicide cases
- Lead staff trainings on various topics relating to criminal law and procedure, as well as trial practice
- Uncovered a disturbing practice by some judges of routinely acquitting defendants charged with OUI in jury-waived proceedings and substantially contributed to the Boston Globe Spotlight series on this issue in the fall of 2011
- Mentored newly appointed Superior Court ADAs

UNITED STATES ATTORNEY'S OFFICE, MAJOR CRIMES UNIT

Boston, MA

Assistant United States Attorney (October 2001- April 2003)

- Prosecuted federal felonies including arson, armed car robbery, bank robbery, felon in possession of firearm, and assorted immigration crimes

PLYMOUTH COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE

Brockton, MA

Superior Court ADA (January 1995- October 2001)

- Prosecuted wide range of cases, including homicide, motor vehicle homicide, arson, child sexual abuse, gun trafficking, drug trafficking, and other felonies
- Handled about 80% of own cases on appeal, including significant SJC decisions such as Commonwealth v. Santana 420 Mass 205 (1995) (Subjective motivation of police officer irrelevant in search/seizure); Commonwealth v. Motta 424 Mass 117 (1997) (SJC formally espouses automobile exception to warrant requirement); Commonwealth v. Gonsalves 429 Mass 658 (1999) (SJC refuses to adopt United States Superior Court reasoning in Pennsylvania v. Mims and Maryland v. Wilson)

District Court ADA (October 1991-December 1994)

- Assigned to all four district courts in Plymouth County at one time
- Amassed hundreds of trials, both jury and jury waived, during the de-novo era
- Started handling appellate work and argued before the SJC and the Appeals Court

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

GUEST LECTURER

Massachusetts

- Guest lecturer on matters related to criminal law and procedure, and trial and appellate practice at the following educational institutions:
Boston University Law School, Suffolk University Law School, University of New Hampshire, Stonehill College, and University of Massachusetts Amherst

MASSACHUSETTS CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION FACULTY MEMBER/LECTURER

Boston, MA

- Taught criminal procedure to junior attorneys, specializing in the topic of search and seizure

EDMONDS AND HEIR, FACULTY MEMBER

Massachusetts

- Taught criminal procedure to police officers statewide taking promotional exams

REFERENCES

Honorable John M. Greaney

Supreme Judicial Court Justice (Retired), telephone # (617) 573-8556, jgreaney@suffolk.edu

Michael J. Sullivan

Former U.S. Attorney, District of Massachusetts, telephone # (617) 275-8801

Additional References Available Upon Request